FALL RIVER TO HONOR DANNY MURPHY Manager of Murlins Will Be Guest of City on Sept. 15.

Saturday, September 15, is to be Danny Murphy day and one of the biggest days in the history of baseball in Fall River is being planned by Jack O'Brien, the Napoleon of the national pastime in that town. Announcement of the fact was made by Jawn recently and judging from the plans already outlined the fans of this city are in for a treat the equal of which has never been seen on the local pasture.

Every baseball fan in town from the oldest down to the youngest knows of Danny Murphy and his many feats in the big leagues. Not a few remember the day he broke into big league ball as a member of Connie Mack's Athletics years ago and on the old Huntington Avenue grounds in Boston laced six hits off the delivery of Cy Young, considered by many the greatest nitch. considered by many the greatest pitcher of his day.

Murphy one of Fall River's sons, like Larry Lajoie is an idol with the base ball fans there.

The Planters will oppose the Cham-pions at the Rocky Thursday. Only one more chance to see the Murphy crowd in action after this afternoon.

Washington scored its run in the fifth inning on Foster's walk, a sacrifice by Morgan, which Shore played to second too late to head off Foster, a safe bunt by Leonard and a double play on Ainsmith's fly to Hooper. Boston fied it up in the sixth on Cady's double and singles by Shore and Hooper. This was the only inning in which hits were bunched on Ayers. Both teams gave a fine fielding exhibition, the work of Shanks and Scott, the opposing shortstops, standing out prominently.

Whereupon, It is Ordered That said application be heard and determined at the Probate Court Room in Lebanon, in said District, on the 21st day of September, A. D. 1917, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, but the low level final-ly reached brought out an increased demand. In the last hour the list rebounded sharply, regaining a considerable amount of the ground lost.

Selling was heaviest in steel, which for a time was thrown on the market of peared in the motors. Eeading, Union Pacific, Delaware and Hudson, Louisville, Canadian Pacific and St. Paul weer conspicuously heavy features of the railroad list. Southern Railway preferred advanced on the resumption of dividends and New Haven, which has shown decided weakness recently, was in better demand and moved against the market.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales (par value) $3,375,000.

Liberty bonds were stronger, at 99.85 to 99.96. United States bonds were unchanged on call.
